Bob Fu, the founder and president of ChinaAid, is a ministry partner with The Voice of the Martyrs that provides support for Christians in China and highlights human rights abuses in the country.

Recently, YouTube videos have been posted naming Bob and several Chinese Americans as "agents of the Chinese Communist Party" (CCP). Bob's integrity as a sincere follower of Christ and concerned advocate for true justice has been well proven over the years. His accuser, Guo, is a Chinese billionaire who came to the United States in 2015 is calling for his supporters to "eliminate" Bob.

Busloads of protestors, many apparently from out of state, have been demonstrating in front of Bob's house in Midland, Texas. Going door-to-door in the neighbourhood, they have distributed flyers claiming him to be a "fake pastor" and "evil cheater." Protest signs declare that he is a Chinese spy. As federal and local authorities believe that the threats are real, they have taken Bob and his family to a safe location for protection. However, the security measures have not stopped the protestors, who are refusing to disclose where they are from and whether or not they are being paid to be there.

Please pray for Bob, his wife Heidi, and their children, as they adapt to their new surroundings after being forced to leave their home. Despite the constant threat of harm, may they rest in the assurance that the Lord is watching over them and providing a place of refuge in His loving arms.

Operation Christmas Child Shoeboxes

With the Covid pandemic there will be no shoebox packing party this year.

However, there is good news. We will still provide shoeboxes and pamphlets here at the church for everyone to take home and fill. The way we can do this is to fill LOTS of shoeboxes. We have some toys and homemade items left over from last year that we will set out each week as extra filler for your shoeboxes. You are welcome to come to the church office Tues— Thursday between 7:30 and 4:00 pm and Fridays 9 —4pm. You can take several items per box and observe social distancing as you quickly make your selection. Please include a $10 cheque or cash for shipping your box. We will not be collecting the shoeboxes this year. Please take them to the Swift Current Mall Collection site between Nov. 16 and 22nd.
